DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sollars, Jr., et al. in view of Wallentin, et al. (6,447,003).

Sollars, Jr. teaches an air-bag, the air-bag being formed from fabric and having an inflatable region wherein the fabric is woven to have a random or quasi-random distribution of floats. Sollars, Jr. is silent to the airbag having mounts. Sollars, Jr. teaches an inflator assembly 124, with respect to a gas supply duct, it is old and well known in the art for the inflatable curtain to have the duct attached to the inflator. Wallentin teaches an airbag having a protruding mounting tab 20 with an aperture 21 formed from a fabric. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the airbag of Sollars, Jr. to have an extension of the airbag fabric to provide mounts to secure the airbag to a vehicle. Regarding claims 3-5, the method of forming is a mere design choice and the method of forming the device is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has not been given patentable weight.

Art Unit: 3616

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 12-14 are allowed.
4. Claims 11 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
